

Curriculum Vitae

a: Personal details

Name, title	Peter Gustaaf Jonker, dr.
Male/female	male
Nationality	Dutch
Native country parents	The Netherlands

b: Masters degree

University	Utrecht University
Date	August 1997
Subject	Observational Astronomy
Thesis	Infrared excess from O and B stars as seen with the ISO satellite

c: Doctorate degree

University	University of Amsterdam
Date	October 19, 2001
Supervisor	Prof. dr. M. van der Klis
Thesis	Probing low-mass X-ray binaries with X-ray timing

d: Work experience

2010-current	Staff member, SRON, Netherlands Institute for Space Research
2008-current	VIDI Fellowship, holding it at SRON, Netherlands Institute for Space Research
2005-current	Research Associate of the Harvard-Smithsonian Center for Astrophysics
2005-2008	Veni Fellowship, held at SRON, Netherlands Institute for Space Research
2003-2005	Chandra Fellow, Harvard-Smithsonian Center for Astrophysics, Cambridge, U.S.A.
2001-2003	Marie Curie Fellow, Institute of Astronomy, Cambridge, U.K.

Years of research after PhD

9 years

Other academic activities

2010-current	Member/secretary of the board of Museum Sonnenborgh, Utrecht
2008-current	Member of the Dutch Program Committee for the INT, WHT, and JCMT: Chair since 2010
2005-2008	Referee for the National Radio Astronomy Observatories VLA & VLBA
2001-current	Referee for the journals MNRAS, A&A, ApJ, Advances in Space Research
2002-2003	Organiser of the Darwin College science lunch talks, Darwin College Cambridge
1998-2001	Treasurer of the Dutch Astronomers Association

Scholarships and prizes

2008-current	I have been awarded a VIDI Fellowship by NWO, the Dutch Research Council.
2005-current	I have been awarded a Research Associateship of the Smithsonian Astrophysical Observatory which is part of the Harvard-Smithsonian Center for Astrophysics
2005-2008	I have been awarded a VENI Fellowship by NWO, the Dutch Research Council.
2003-2005	I have been awarded a NASA Chandra Fellowship.
2003	I have been awarded the Charles and Katharine Darwin Non-Stipendiary Research Fellowship from Darwin College Cambridge, U.K.
2001-2003	I have been awarded a Marie Curie Fellowship from the European Commission.